Swachch Bharat Swachch Vidyalaya

PREFACE

If the social order is to endure, it must advocate a way of existence that could be sustainable by Mother Earth that is a cleaner and greener environment for the third millennium. Over the eons as people have continued their perpetual pursuit for technological advances, the pollution and grunge caused has brought our society to a crossroad of establishing harmony with nature for our continued existence.

Cleaning up the country is a humongous task that needs a changed mindset. Social media and citizen enthusiasm can endow with the impetus to this vital drive but at the end of the day the municipalities and government agencies need to awaken from dormancy. Even movies like the 'Slum dog Millionaire' which had set the repugnant negative consciousness about our country and was a national stigma was futile in its endeavor.

The 'Swachh Bharat Swachh Vidyalaya' is the national campaign by the crusader of the Swachh Bharat mission Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi to advocate and ensure that every school in India has well maintained water, hygiene and sanitation facilities which ensures the smooth progress of students in acquiring good health and promotes circumstances congenial for their augmentation. The pages in this book enumerate a series of path breaking schemes undertaken by the stake holders of the institution in our premises as well as in the city to indoctrinate, incorporate and synchronize this colossal assignment. I extend my gratitude to all of you for extending your cooperation and committed effort for the materialization of this chore.

YES, I AGREE THAT MY WARD IS CHANGED VERY MUCH AFTER THE "SWACHH BHARAT" MISSION. FIRST HE WAS NOT MAINTAINING MUCH CLEANLINESS. HE WAS THROUGHING GARBAGE HERE AND THERE. BUT NOW HE HAS ONLY ORDERED THAT THERE SHOULD BE A DUSTBIN IN EVERY ROOM OF THE HOME. I ALSO GOT TO KNOW THAT HE IS MAINTAINING CLEANLINESS IN CLASS AS WELL AS IN THE STREETS. I THINK HE HAD GOT A NEW MISSION AND I WILL BE WITH HIM.

FIRST WEEK

30th September to 11th October

This campaign which is basically a three point programme to inculcate awareness, action programme and a sustainable community for a cleaner and better India, initiated by the Central Government is being followed in DPS Raipur with complete zest and vigor. Enthusiastic students of classes I to V were sensitized towards cleanliness by an assembly conducted by the primary wing and by administration of the cleanliness pledge on the 30th of September. DPS fraternity joined hands to get the campus and the surroundings clean on the 2nd of October. Classes IV to XII had an orientation programme from the 7th to the 10th of October to develop and generate awareness about Swachh Bharat and its repercussions. 11th of October witnessed excited and passionate students participating in an assortment of literary and creative pursuits like paragraph writing, elocution and drawing pertaining to the same.

Under the aegis of the Eco-club, the students wielded brooms to clean the herbal garden. Moreover they provided eco-chalk boxes to the entire school. The Young Science Forum of the school ventured into the upkeep of the junior science lab. Highly motivated and with a sense of pride they arranged the equipments, files and records and cleared the racks. Moreover staff members were enthused to inculcate the positive aspects of this drive among the students and to take it up very rigorously. The Swachh Bharat Pledge circulated by the Government of India was administered to the staff members by the Principal.

SECOND WEEK

13th September to 18th October

The clarion call given by the Prime Minister of India for a 'SWACHH BHARAT' seems to have engulfed the whole nation. Innumerable initiatives are being taken at DPS to inculcate and involve students and staff so that the quintessence of the mission remains importunate.

In sync with the SWACHH BHARAT ABHIYAAN, the students of class IX penned their views on the topic 'To be clean is to be civilized' on the 13th of October.

A poster designing informative competition depicting the need for cleanliness was conducted for class vi students on the 14th of October. The theme was 'I am my own scavenger'. The competitors remained unfazed by the skills of their counterparts and kept on drawing and coining slogans to steep up the awareness

As a part of their itinerary, in the wake of the Cleanliness Drive the Social and Interact Club of the school along with a number of other students visited Nardaha on the 15th of October. They spruced up the entire area, wielded broomsticks sweeping off the dirt conscientiously to induce a sense of cleanliness among the village folk.

On the 16th of October the Eco club members organized a rally from Gandhi Udyan to Chief Ministers Bungalow. A Street Play depicting the same theme was also portrayed in front of the Chief Ministers Bungalow which garnered a huge crowd. The crowd was enthralled by the performance which surely accentuated the need for a Cleaner and Greener India.

The primary wing of the school hosted an assembly on the 17th of October comprising of mime show, Qawalli, Group Song and Street Play to indoctrinate the significance of cleanliness. The cleanliness pledge was administered to the assembly.

The enthusiasts of the Indi-Crochet enterprise that deals in sustainable hand made products organized an exhibition cum sale of products designed and made by the women of Nardaha on the 18th of October. The process definitely develops entrepreneurship simultaneously driving the need for recycling and reusing to contribute altruistically for a cleaner environment.

THIRD WEEK

27th October to 31st October

To associate with the unswerving resolve of the crusader of the “cleanliness drive” Prime Minister of the nation Shri Narendra Modi whose plea has already begun to show its cascading effect on the entire nation, our school resumed the ‘Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan’ supplementing the indefatigable milestones to be overcome to achieve this mission.

A mélange of activities were organized from the 27th of October. The Art Department of the school garnered the students to generate refuse for reuse and wealth from waste by teaching them to make newspaper bags and cotton cloth bags from waste materials to minimize the use of polythene thus fostering and reiterating eco friendly ways.

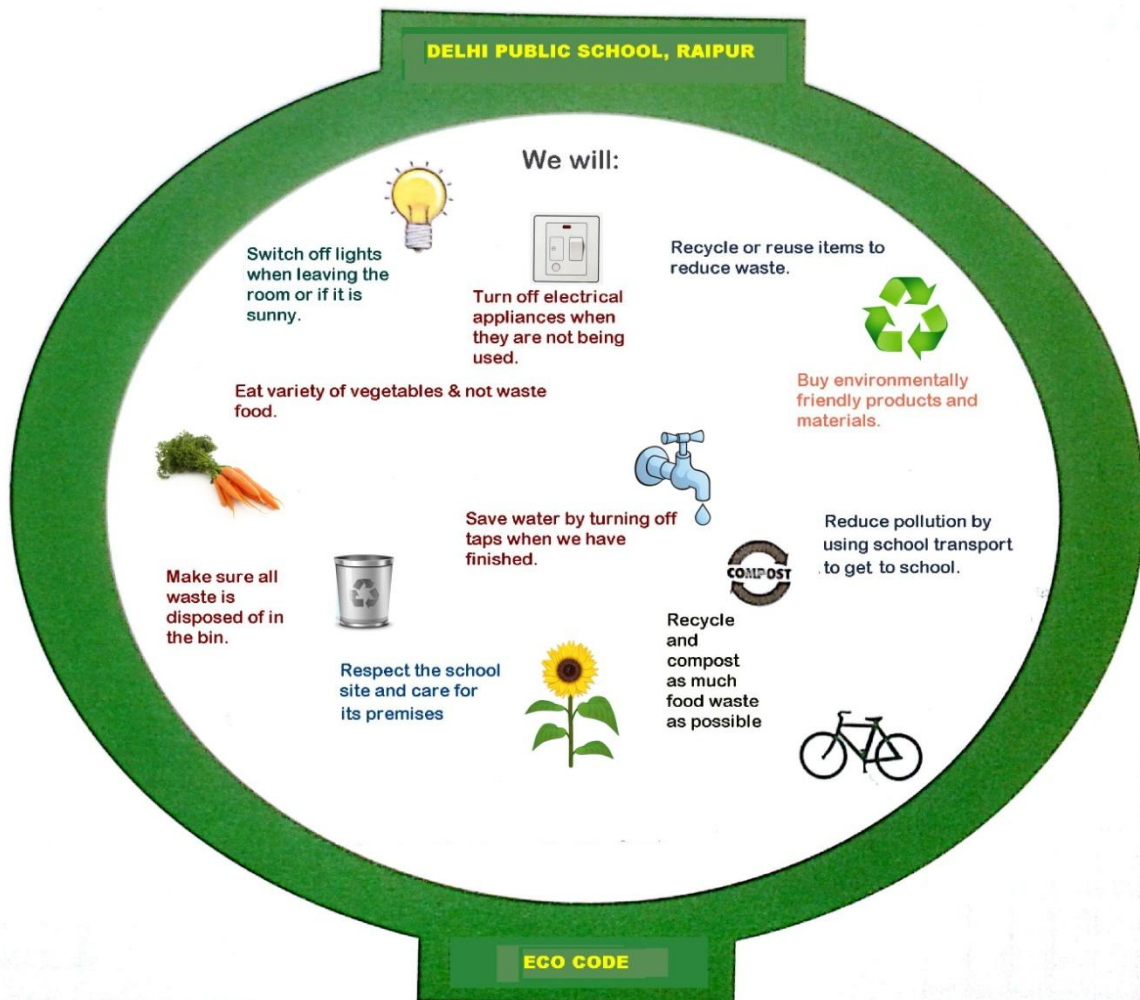

The Eco Club of the school under the able guidance of the mentors enhanced critical thought and rational of the same theme with exhibits on the display board made by the students. This would definitely endow the learner with a configuration to comprehend an environmentally clean Nation.

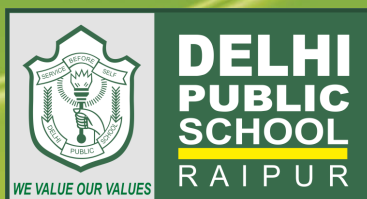

“Go Green Be Ever Green” was the premise of the poetic competition on the 29th of October. The spontaneous sterling compositions depicted their creative flair and the burgeoning awareness added in these creative dimensions were a proof enough to suggest that they want to be a part of a Greener, Cleaner Microcosm.

The assembly on the 30th of October sensitized and generated receptiveness with the sequence of presentations. The Street Play with its effervescent dynamism permeated the theme thoroughly in the student audience. We have set the stone rolling which has gathered momentum; we would not let it accrue moss.
