

MODEL UNITED NATIONS (MUN)

The first international MUN in Amity International School Noida was attended by 7 students of DPSR. They were Mrinalini Kalla, Anhita Tiwari, Shrishti R Agrawal, Sakshi Banjal, Akshat Tripathi, Rohit Agrawal and Sanskriti Karnawat. They represented Sri Lanka and Indonesia in four different committees.

With the same zeal and desire to achieve DPSR joined hands for the inaugural ceremony of DPSR-MUN 2014 on the 20th January 2014. The conference commenced after the official opening declaration by Mr Raghunath Mukherjee, Principal of DPSR. Twenty seven students from Class IX to XII took part in the conference.

Delhi Public School Raipur students attended the 5th Amity International Model United Nations 2014. The DPSR students participated in different committees and discussed various topics ranging from Sustainable Development, Nuclear Terrorism, Women Reservation, Unarmed Drones, Drug Trafficking and Police Reforms to the Suez Crisis of 1957. The team consisted of Akshat Tripathi of Class XI and Sanskruti Karnawat, Akash Sharma, Nikhil Nair, Rimjhim Lahoti, Suman Sunil and Ekta Wadhvani of Class X.

The 10th December 2014 was World Human Rights Day and to mark the occasion the US Consulate General Mr Thomas L. Vajda visited DPSR and interacted with the students about the MUN experience. The participating students asked questions about the Indo-US link, as well as other wide ranging topics. The US Consulate was excited to witness the PowerPoint presentation shown by the students on their thrilling experience in being a part of an organisation such as MUN.

A Team of 25 students from DPS Raipur (classes VIII & IX) had taken part in IIMUN held at Rungta International School in November 2014. The team backed runner's up position by displaying a praiseworthy performance. Another group consisting of five students from classes VIII and IX had attended a workshop in November 2014 at Kanger Valley School.

Eight students from Class IX and X of DPSR, Arnab Mishra, Rishita Tiwari, Taruna Pariyani, Shivansh Tiwari, Aryan Vyas, Purvansh Bal, Swastik Shukla and Ojasvi Khandelwal took part in SAIMUN held at Sai International School in Bhubaneswar from the 22nd July to the 24th July 2015. They participated in many different committees, ranging from the United Nations Security Council to the Office on Drugs and Crime. Two exchange teachers from the UK, Mr Lean and Mr Fulloway, participated in SAIMUN as International Delegates representing DPSR. The students were able to participate in a number of different experiences during the conference ranging from debating and teamwork to spoken English and diplomacy. It was a unique experience for the students and their performance was highly appreciated by the audience.

On 22nd August 2015, Delhi Public School Raipur conducted the Model United Nations with 29 students. The conference was chaired by Samisksha Singh, a law student of Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur. She was accompanied by two international chairs from the UK, Mr Richard Fulloway and Mr Tiernan

COMMITTEE DETAILS

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN (UNCSW)

Agenda: Discrimination against women in the armed forces

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. A functional commission of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), it was established by Council Resolution 11(II) of 21 June 1946. The CSW is instrumental in promoting women's rights, documenting the reality of women's lives throughout the world, and shaping global standards on gender equality and the empowerment of women. The Commission adopts multi-year work programmes to appraise progress and make further recommendations to accelerate the implementation of the Platform for Action. These recommendations take the form of negotiated agreed conclusions on a priority theme. Member States agree on further actions to accelerate progress and promote women's enjoyment of their rights in political, economic and social fields. The outcomes and recommendations of each session are forwarded to ECOSOC for follow-up. UN Women supports all aspects of the Commission's work. They also facilitate the participation of civil society

UNITED NATIONS OFFICE ON DRUGS AND CRIMES(UNODC)

Agenda: Illicit drugs and Crime.

UNODC is a global leader in the fight against illicit drugs and international crime. Established in 1997 through a merger between the United Nations Drug Control Programme and the Centre for International Crime Prevention, UNODC operates in all regions of the world through an extensive network of field offices. UNODC relies on voluntary contributions, mainly from Governments, for 90 per cent of its budget. UNODC is mandated to assist Member States in their struggle against illicit drugs, crime and terrorism. In the Millennium Declaration, Member States also resolved to intensify efforts to fight transnational crime in all its dimensions, to redouble the efforts to implement the commitment to counter the world drug problem and to take concerted action against international terrorism. In pursuing its objectives, UNODC makes every effort to integrate and mainstream the gender perspective, particularly in its projects for the provision of alternative livelihoods
